Chicago Opera to Remain in West, Is Miss Garden's Plan

Would Divide Up Country,
Leaving East Entirely to Metropolitan.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—Chicago opera in future will be a Western institution and will not be heard in New York, if a plan announced to-night by Mary Garden, director of the company, is put into effect.

"Let the Chicago company fill the need for opera all through the West," said Miss Garden. "Let New York take care of the East."

Miss Garden intimated that the company's territory should extend to San Francisco.

The company earned in San Francisco in two weeks more than sufficient to make up the losses suffered in the New York season," she asserted.

"The Woman's Open Table of the National Arts Club, 15 Gramercy Park, is continuing its series of literary life, which will give in the club galleries during the season a series of playlets and tableaux on various subjects. William Sherer, 84, Quickly Follows His Son in Death

He Was for 25 Years Manager of the New York Clearing House.

William Sherer, 84, for twenty-five years manager of the New York Clearing House, member of the New York Presbytery, a 33d degree Mason and formerly Deputy Treasurer of the United States, died yesterday at his home, 812 Carroll street, Brooklyn, of general debility. His death was hastened by that of his son, William Sherer, Jr., who died Nov. 5.

Mr. Sherer was born in Brandenburg, Ky., son of Dr. William Sherer and of Susan Alfriend Sherer, of an old Virginia family. From 1867 to 1889 he was United States Deputy Treasurer at the Sub-Treasury here. From 1889 to 1917 he was manager of the Clearing House.

Mr. Sherer had served as Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the State of New York, was five times master of Anglo-Saxon Lodge of Masons and was chairman of the war relief committee of the New York Grand Lodge. He was a member of the Electoral College in 1900.

He was a trustee and former president of St. John's Club, a member of the Union League Club, Sons of the American Revolution and the Kentucky Society.

Mr. Sherer, who was Miss Adelaide J. Clark of Westmoreland, N. Y., and two sons and two daughters survive. Personal arrangements have not yet been made.

MAY DOUGLASS DIES;
SANG IN LIGHT OPERA
Succumbs to Nervous Breakdown in Her 60th Year.

Mme. May E. Hyde Torriani, a former light opera singer, died Saturday at her home, 228 Audubon avenue, in her sixtieth year, following a nervous breakdown. She was known on the stage as May Douglass, and at the height of her career was especially popular in Southern cities in tours of "Girofle-Girofla," "Chimes of Normandy," "Erminie," "Pirates of Penzance" and other operas.

She was the wife of Carlo Torriani, who was an operatic director twenty-five years ago. He was the son of Angelo Torriani, a teacher and musical conductor for Adelina Patti during the singer's early years.

Two sisters, Mrs. Valeria J. Bigelow, widow of Charles A. Bigelow, comedian, who died eight years ago, and Mrs. Virginia D. Hyde-Vogel, writer, and wife of a Denver attorney, and a brother, Paul W. Hyde of Chicago, survive.
